

TEXTBOOK USAGE GUIDELINES

The campus Learning Resource Centers provide access to textbooks used in academic courses as a courtesy service. All textbooks may not be available at all campus locations. Students should inquire at the Information Desk for availability of textbooks and/or may check the Library's online catalog.

Textbook usage is subjected two hours limit. Textbooks cannot leave the library. Late fees may occur if not returned within the stated limits.

Students must present a valid WCCCD One Card registered as a library card to use textbooks and all reserved materials.

Identification is retained until textbook and/or reserved materials are returned.
