

Enrollment Demographics

According to the American Association of Community College (AACC), the average age of community college students nationally is 27. 29% are first-generation students, 65% attend part-time, and 60% are women. Lastly, 72% of all part-time students at community colleges work.

Non-traditional careers refer to jobs that have been traditionally filled by one gender. For example, males in Nursing, females in Truck Driving.

What are non-traditional careers:

Health Sciences

Business, Management, & Administration

Computer Information Science & Technology

Law, Public Safety, Corrections & Security

32%

of WCCCD CTE students are enrolled in non-traditional programs for their gender

“Top four” CTE career programs for WCCCD

WCCCD Student Demographics

Traditional

18-24, 25%

Non-Traditional

25-49, 36%

Early College

17 and Under, 21%

Plus 50

50 and over, 18%

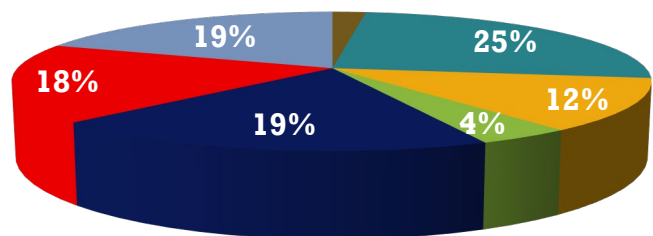

Average Age: 32

First-generation: 37%

Attend part-time: 88%

Women: 66%

Percent of Credit/Non-Credit Enrollment

■ University Center

■ Distance Learning

■ Eastern

■ Ted Scott

■ CLI Downtown

■ Northwest

■ Downriver