INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

ADVANCEMENT OF OPERATIONAL EXCELLENCE

The Division of Information Technology strives to provide state of the art technology to assist with advancement of operational and management excellence leading to student success. The COMPASS test is administered to the students at all the campuses. The IT team is responsible for installing the software and ensuring that it is working. In the past the students attending classes at the University Center were required to go to the Eastern Campus to take the test. The COMPASS software has now been installed at the University center and the students no longer have to travel to the Eastern Campus any more. This is another step towards providing more efficient services to the students.

collaborative group to encourage international businesses to come to Michigan that express interest in being a part of the success of the Project SEARCH Program. The role of the committee is to achieve the goal of full employment of Project SEARCH students transitioning from special education to work by providing the employer perspective and support. Project Search employment initiative is in partnership with the Detroit Public School and other community providers.

Muna Khoury was selected to serve on the Project SEARCH Business Advisory Committee (BAC). BAC is being established to work as a

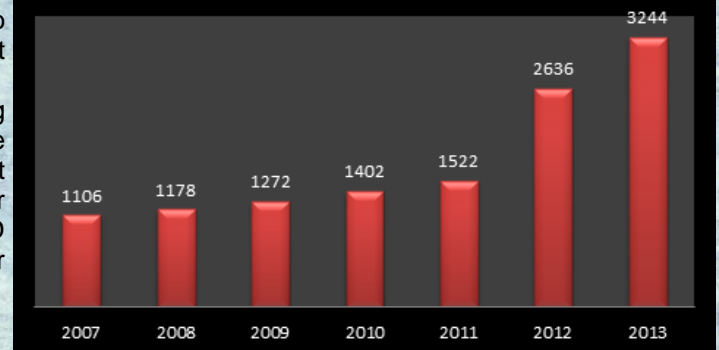

The Completion Agenda is about students completing their degrees or certificates and moving forward with marketable skills. The artwork that you see is an example of a student learning the finer points of welding through art. We are very proud of the new Artistic Welding Program and the ability that is constantly showcased in the artistic endeavors of our students.

COMPLETION AGENDA

The Completion Agenda 2020 challenged community colleges to increase the number of student graduates by the year 2020. WCCCD set a goal of increasing awareness of the importance of a degree or certificate and strive to increase degree and certificate attainment by 50%. The chart shows our phenomenal success in graduation rates for our students. In 2007, we had 1,106 graduates. This year WCCCD increased the number of graduates who completed a program or certificate to 3,244, a 284% increase!

ACADEMIC PROGRAM PLANNING

Contact with agencies or organizations that our students approach for third party testing, licensing or certification is critical for our career programs. Dr. Frank Dunbar and Aarif Bashir (HVAC Faculty Member) recently met with Les Owens, License Examiner for the City of Detroit. Our HVAC students apply for 3rd Class Refrigeration Operators License and/or High Pressure Boiler Operator License through Mr. Owens' office. As our HVAC program has been modified, Mr. Owens was given a preview of the program. His comment: "This is an excellent program model. I wish other schools would set their programs up in a similar way." Mr. Bashir also took the opportunity to discuss the testing approach and philosophy used in the Examiners Office. The insights gained in this meeting will further the success of our HVAC students as they seek licensing and certification from the City of Detroit.

AMERICAN COUNCIL ON EDUCATION MICHIGAN WOMEN'S NETWORK

Team members of the District attended the American Council on Education (ACE) Michigan Women's Network 2014 Conference hosted by Lansing Community College. This year's conference titled Make a Difference: Leadership • Inclusion • Connections offered an exciting and unique opportunity to connect with professionals working to enhance, improve and evolve higher education. Conference attendees included: Melani Bender, Chastity Gaither, Dr. Stephanie Bulger, Jamila Suddith, Martha Grier, Dr. Sandra Robinson and Mawine Diggs.

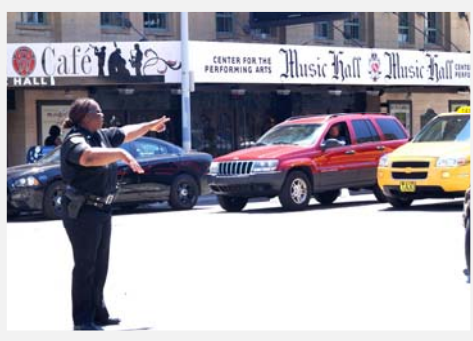

ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCE BEST PRACTICES

Melani Bender and Sonia Grewal met with staff members of Eastern Michigan University's Accounts Payables and Information Technology divisions. The visit included discussion regarding best practices and BDMS/Xtender set-up and utilization in accounts payables. The BDMS/Xtender product provides users with the ability to convert their paper processes into electronic solutions. BDMS/Xtender provides tools for scanning, indexing, storing, sharing and archiving critical documents while managing a link to the data records in BANNER.

DISTRICT PUBLIC SAFETY

District Police Authority and the Wayne State University Police Departments collaborated to assist in basic traffic control in which the police work closely with the community to enhance public safety. Both departments provided traffic control and patrol operations at and around Ford Field to insure a safe and secure environment for the 2014 Commencement Ceremony.

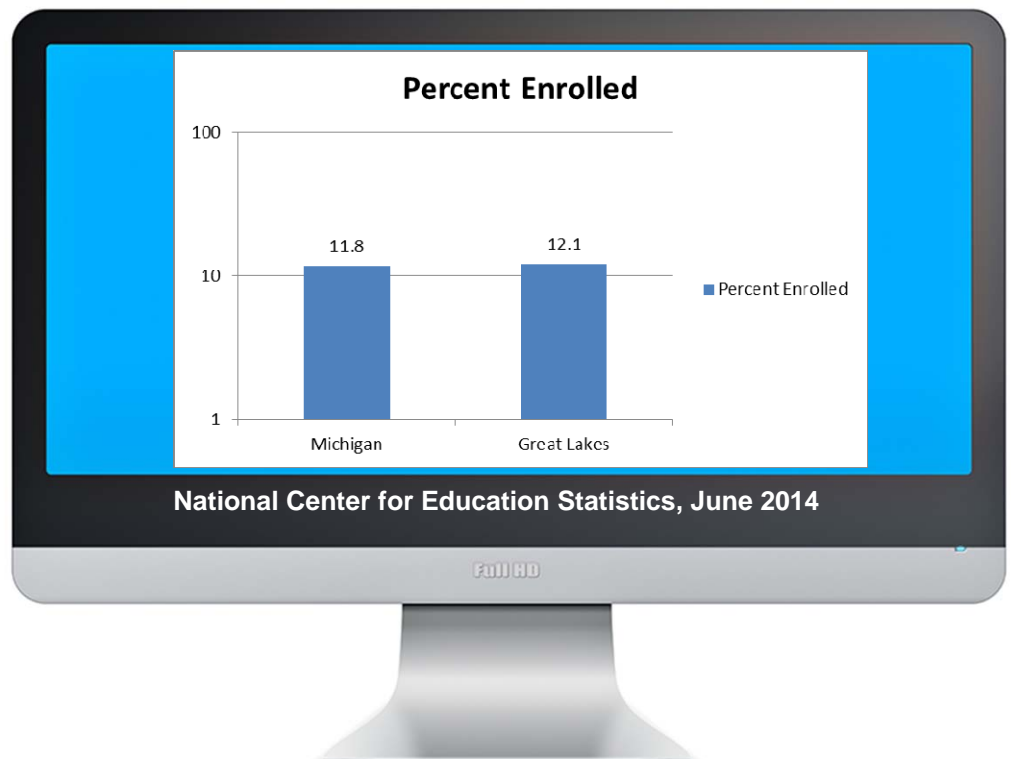

It is very important to maintain control during detainee transport. The District Police Authority recently installed partitions in several of the patrol vehicles. These partitions are designed with safety in mind, providing maximum front driving space, and provides safety from detainees.

CENTER FOR DISTANCE EDUCATION

The U.S. Department of Education has released its first report on distance education enrollment. The Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) survey from Fall 2012 was utilized to generate information pertaining to "courses in which instructional content was delivered exclusively through distance education..." The data is broken down by region in the U.S., by each state, as well as by type of institution. The graph indicates the percentage of students who enrolled in some, but not all distance education courses for Michigan, and how those numbers compare to the Great Lakes region.

DUAL ENROLLMENT STUDENTS

Will Sampson and Dr. Sandra Robinson represented the District at the Chandler Park Academy's Graduation. Ronnie Phillips, Principal, acknowledged the partnership with WCCCD and the success of the students in the Dual Enrollment Program. The commencement speaker was Randall Jackson, Esq., son of WCCCD Professor James Jackson.

ON THE MOVE...

- Dr. Sandra Robinson attended the American Council on Education's annual Women's Conference.
- Dr. Julie Corbett and Dr. Robinson represented the District at the Pewabic Pottery's annual House and Garden Showcase.
- Dr. Robinson also represented the District at the annual Race for the Cure Walk at Chene Park.
- Orlando Wilkins shared information about the District and the MES University Center with concert goers at the "Music on the Plaza" jazz concert in Grosse Pointe. WCCCD is a sponsor of the jazz concert series.

CONTINUOUS QUALITY IMPROVEMENT AUDIT CENTER

The Continuous Quality Improvement Audit Center (CQIAC) collects, reviews and conducts monthly reconciliations and on-going audits of all District data. A systematic approach is used to procure data from multiple sources, allowing for collective knowledge through accountability and transparency. The CQIAC is currently tracking the summer Positive Attendance Reports for student attendance. The attendance reports provide the basis for trend analysis on instructor reposting and the time lines for submission.

smarthinking WORKSHOP

Staff at the Northwest Campus participated in a workshop on Smarthinking, online tutoring technology for students. The workshop was facilitated by Donnell Mason. This new technology will provide tutoring anywhere, anytime for current students.

IN THE MAIL...

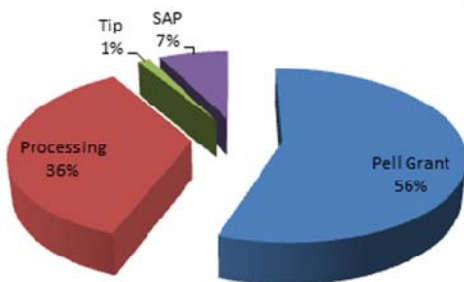

The Division of Student Services received a letter of thanks from WCCCD graduate Archie Little, who is also a 75 year old senior citizen. Mr. Little wrote the letter to thank administration and faculty for making the Honors Convocation such a memorable event. He also requested additional copies of the program booklet to share the event with his family and friends as a way of encouraging others to take advantage of the many programs available at WCCCD.

STUDENT SUCCESS

One of our Michigan College/University Partnership (MICUP) students, Clarence Hardwick is now pursuing his bachelor's degree at Michigan Technological University (MTU). Recently he was nominated for his academic achievements to become a member of MTU's honor society. We congratulate Mr. Hardwick for a job well done and wish him continued success!

STUDENT SOLUTIONS CENTER

1st Quarter Student Call Summary

WCCCD continues to increase retention through its District Student Solutions Center. The center assists students with financial aid inquiries and reaches out to students who have been admitted to the college and receiving financial aid but not yet registered for classes. The center services students with a personal touch that is needed and appreciated by students who need financial assistance to continue their education.

WCCCD WILDCATS!

WCCCD Wildcats Guard Shaun Duncan received a two-year athletic scholarship to play basketball with the Madonna Crusaders. This season he was voted to All-Conference, Region, and Tournament Teams. Mr. Duncan will have an opportunity to continue his education and athletic goals at Madonna University.

Western Campus

JUNIOR GIRL SCOUTS AND BROWNIES

The Western Campus hosted area Junior Girl Scouts and Brownies as they worked on their Bronze Award service project, making blankets for Project Linus. This non-profit organization provides homemade blankets to children in need. In total, 64 blankets were completed and will be presented to Project Linus at their Bridging and Award Ceremony.

Downtown Campus

DETROIT FUTURE CITY BLIGHT

The Detroit Future City organization held a "Blight Boot Camp" initiative at the Downtown Campus. The boot camp provided opportunities to clean and beautify the City of Detroit. The program magnified existing community efforts to address blight elimination and implement blight interventions.

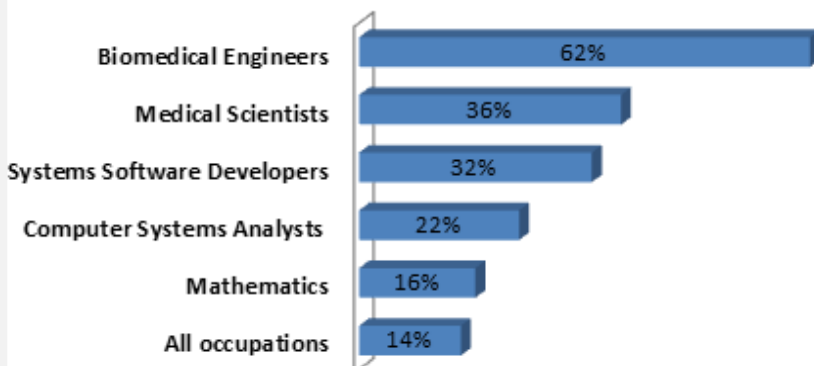

INSTITUTIONAL EFFECTIVENESS

In an article, posted on the U.S Department of Education's website entitled "Science, Technology, Engineering and Math Education for Global Leadership," President Obama indicated that the U.S. has become a global leader, in large part, through the hard work of its scientists, engineers and innovators. Yet this position is threatened because, few American students pursue fields in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM). The chart to the left is the projected percentage increases in STEM jobs: 2010-2020.

(Source: <http://www.ed.gov/stem>)

Projected Percentage Increases In STEM Jobs: 2010-2020

Did you know that in 2012-13 over 14% of WCCCD graduates were awarded degrees/certificates in STEM fields. Some of the top STEM areas where students have completed certificates and degrees include heating, ventilation, and air conditioning, automotive service technology, and computer information systems.

PHARMACY TECHNOLOGY

Keith Binion conducted a Pharmacy Technology Advisory Board Meeting. The Advisory Board will provide insight and guidance on curriculum development and assist in preparing students for alignment within industry standards. The Board consists of members from the community, hospital pharmacy, community pharmacy, long-term care and insurance care.

CONGRATULATIONS!
