Curriculum Inter-Divisional Prioritization Action Plan

The Division of Educational Affairs includes a number of units dedicated to the support of student academic success, faculty excellence, and academic program quality. The Division also represents the largest fraction of the District's total operating budget and thereby has a significant opportunity to exhibit efficient stewardship of resources. Staff from the Divisions of Academic Instruction, Information Technology, Student Services and the Financial Aid Department held an inter-divisional prioritization action plan meeting, with a focus on the catalog in BANNER.

Division of Educational Affairs

Career and Technical Education Program Review

Dr. Harvey Dorrah and Tynisha McGee conducted a career program review with staff at the Eastern Campus. The Career and Technical Education Program Review maximizes the use of resources improving the quality of career and technical education programs offered at WCCCD.

Textbook Selection Process

Oneka Samet discussed the textbook selection process with faculty members while at the 2017 WCCCD Commencement Ceremony.

Faculty Assist with Recruitment

Faculty members at the Downriver Campus met with students to inform them of the many career program offerings at WCCCD.

District Design Center

Members of the Design Center participated in the webinar Gen Z: What You Need to Know to Attract, Enroll and Retrain Them. WCCCD students who were born between the years 1995 and 2012 are considered Gen Z. The following are attributes of Gen Z students as presented in the webinar by Gen Z Guru:

- Realistic – 61% want to know what career they want before they enter college. WCCCD's academic advisors assist our students with defining their end goals.
- Phigital (blending of the physical and digital world) – 50% believe an online degree would be regarded in the same way a traditional degree is. WCCCD offers a wide array of distance learning courses.
- Hyper Custom - recruitment efforts focused on the experience the students will have attending our institution. WCCCD's social media promotes student activities, organizations, events, and opportunities for engagement outside the classroom.
- FOMO (Fear of Missing Out) – Gen Z's need to see a direct connection on what we are learning in school and how it applies to our future. WCCCD's immense partnerships with businesses and four-year institutions provides a seamless pathway for students to reach their end goal.

Happening Now!

Data Closet Network and Power Redundancy

In conjunction with WCCCD's data closet upgrades, an assessment is underway to address core information technology infrastructure.

- Dual power supplies for switches and key infrastructure components
- Redundant network connectivity for critical areas

Solomon Asmelash met with consulting team members from Plante Moran as part of an ongoing review and update to the District's IT security policies and procedures.

Staff Meeting

A staff meeting was held this week to discuss communication, uniformity and collaboration with other divisions and departments District-wide. Project status updates were also shared.

Health Science Center

Students receive full scholarships for Dental Assisting and Pharmacy Technology!

Scholarship recipients Taylor Johnson, Georgena Abram, Dalin Griffey, and Cortez Porties, pose with Dr. Abby Freeman at the Northwest Campus.

WCCCD Student Receives Grant through the Health Professions Opportunity Grant Organization

Wydiah Abdul-Lateef (pictured on the left) has been accepted into the Dental Hygiene Program that will begin Fall 2017. Ms. Abdul-Lateef has also been awarded grant money through the Health Professions Opportunity Grant (HPOG) organization, this grant will cover all school-related expenses.

HPOG provides training, education and supportive services to eligible Wayne County residents that are receiving federal cash assistance for healthcare occupations that pay well and are in high demand.

Division of Institutional Effectiveness

What's Trending in IE: Graduate Exit Survey

During WCCCD's 2017 Commencement Ceremony, the Division of Institutional Effectiveness administered the Graduate Exit Survey to the 2017 graduates. The survey is designed to capture new graduates' immediate perceptions of their overall academic and student life experiences upon degree completion from WCCCD. Data collected is used to support evidence-based planning, decisions, and recommendations for improvement in key areas that influence student engagement and success.

Did you know WCCCD awarded more than 50,000 graduates since 1970?

Division of Administration and Finance

Fiscal Year 2017/2018 Processes and Internal Controls

In preparation for fiscal year 2017/2018, the Division of Administration and Finance is meeting regularly to review and enhance processes and internal controls. A large group session was held to discuss the progress of the year-end close out process. All documents being processed after June 30, 2017, must be clearly marked with the appropriate fiscal year to the applicable period.

Processes and Quality Improvements

The Division of Administration and Finance small group sessions are also taking place to discuss the startup of the new fiscal year. Processes and quality improvements are being reviewed to ensure a smooth transition into Fiscal Year 2018. It is critical that the team review, resolve and approve all requisitions, invoices, travel reimbursements and receiving documents pertaining to Fiscal Year 2016/2017.

Card skimming, the practice of using an electronic device to record account data encoded on the magnetic stripe on a credit, debit or ATM card, has grown to a $1 billion-plus annual business, according to published reports. Here are some tips to help you protect yourself:

- Use ATMs you are familiar with
- Cover the keypad to screen cameras before entering a PIN
- Use a machine that is inside a bank whenever possible
- Check your account online to make sure there are no suspicious charges
- Be wary of those trying to help you, especially when an ATM "eats" your card. They may be trying to steal your card number and PIN.
- Contact your bank immediately if your card is lost, stolen or subject to fraudulent use
