Division of Student Services Functions - Registration

Guided Pathways

The Office of Records and Admissions is gearing up for Spring 2020 and is working hard to make seeking education and training more convenient for students. To be admitted and register for classes, students are able to use one of the following methods:

- ◆ On-line registration through their Web-Gate.
- ◆ On-site at any one of the five conveniently located campuses.
- ◆ Mail-in their registration form after selecting their classes (or forms can be returned to the Office of Admissions and Records at any campus.)

Helping students clarify their path and sustain their identified path to college completion meets the criteria of Pillars I and II of Guided Pathways.

Professional Development

Ronele Johnson attended the CoHEsion Summit 2019 in St. Louis, Missouri. He was able to network with colleagues from other institutions and share valuable feedback from the conference with the staff.

Information Sharing

Staff met to discuss the communications calendar, student success calendar, and the registration process to insure timely and useful information is reaching our students.

Division of Student Services

Professional Development

WCCCD staff received training on how to navigate students' academic support through our partner SMARTHINKING. Students are empowered by easy access to free on-demand instruction and support from expert tutors across a wide variety of subjects with SMARTHINKING online tutoring. From beginner to advanced, 24/7 help is available in math, reading, writing, science, business, computers and technology, nursing, allied health, and career coaching.

Wildcats Basketball Team

WCCCD Lady Wildcats finished their season this past weekend at Oakland Community College. There were 124 runners from the Michigan and Ohio area representing Regional XII.

Carolyn Carter met with representatives from MAC Development, an after school program for middle school children. They have expressed interest in becoming an offsite workstudy location for our students.

Veterans Support

First time student Kyle Smith is active in The National Guard and pursuing a degree in computer information systems.

Student Success Center

The District Student Success Center reached out to the Early Alert students offering student support resources for academic assistance.

Division of Student Services

Trio Students

More than 95 prospective students completing applications for the TRIO-SSS program. These students were admitted during the 2018-2019 academic year.

Phi Theta Kappa

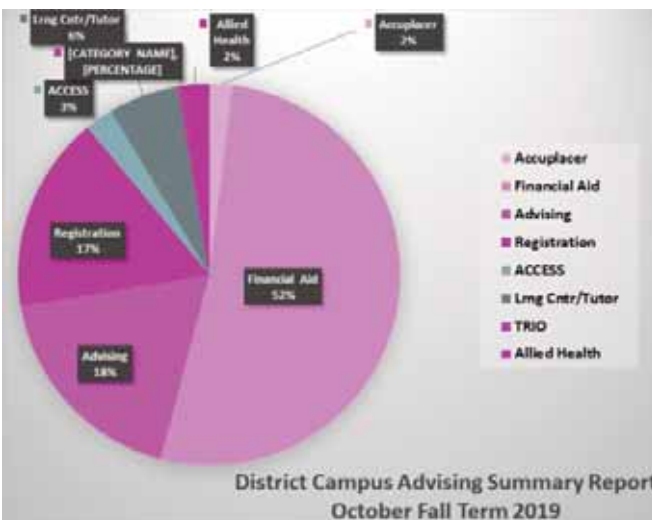

The Downtown Campus hosted an orientation for potential PTK students.

Camessa Karamo assisted PTK students with scholarship searches.

PTK applicant Justin Connoly is excited to get involved with PTK, attend workshops and volunteer.

Each week campuses review the data indicating the number of students who are assisted in their campus's Student Services Division. During the month of October 2019, 3,647 students were assisted District-wide.

Career Planning and Placement

Rennard Martin provides oversight for Student Services Career Planning and Placement District-

The Office of Career Planning and Placement serves both job seekers and employers. As a leader in career services, WCCCD's relationships with both employer and community organizations provides students with unique opportunities for employment. During the month of September, 285 job listings were posted to this website and an additional 298 jobs were added the first two weeks of October.

Food Pantry Initiative

Staff are assigned to various campuses weekly to ensure alignment and support. This week Shakeela Bhatti and Nadia Azzam worked with staff and students answering questions and providing information about the District's Food Pantry Initiative and addressing students questions regarding food insecurity challenges.

Acknowledging our Adjunct Faculty

The Division was commended recently on sending personalized “thank you” cards to all instructional faculty currently teaching at the District for Fall 2019.

Valuing Our Faculty: In the Mail

Good Day Ms. Hines,

Thank you for your kind note of congratulatory encouragement. It enlightens me to see that my love of teaching is not unnoticed. Once again thank you.

*Darnella Nettles-Collins
Adjunct Faculty, Medical Billing Specialist*

Hello Ms. Hines,

I just wanted to let you know I appreciate the note of thanks and the opportunity I have been given to work with our students. Hope to see you at the upcoming District-wide Conference Day!

*Kind Regards,
Brian Smiegel, Full Time Faculty, Business Studies*

Dear Vice-Chancellor Hines,

I am writing to thank you for the beautiful card and also to display my gratitude for your continuous support toward our ESL and Foreign Language programs. Hasta luego :)

Learning Resource Center

From the beginning of Fall 2019, the LRCs District-wide have processed a total of 452 library card applications. Student identification cards become library cards, once an application has been processed. Library cards allow students to check out textbooks for in-library use, request interlibrary loan items, use computers and access to electronic resources remotely.

Students at the Ted Scott Campus learn how to determine the credibility of websites during the a LRC faculty-led workshop.

October is Cybersecurity Awareness Month

Think Before You Click!

The District monitors and block thousands of spam and malicious emails daily. However, phishing is constantly evolving to new forms and techniques which requires all of us to be vigilant.

Protect your identity and the District's computing environment by following this simple tip when you receive an email with a link or an attachment:

- ❖ Do not click any links or attachments unless you are expecting it. Even the source looks familiar, please call the source to verify.
