Division of Educational Affairs

"This is a life changer. I can now seriously go after my dream of becoming a nurse without worrying about the cost of tuition, which has always been a major obstacle preventing me from going back to school."

WCCCD student, Shelby Essenmacher, is highlighted on the Michigan Reconnect Scholarship Program website. Ms. Essenmacher thought obtaining a college education was out of her reach until she learned about the Michigan Reconnect Scholarship. She is now pursuing an Associates of Applied Science in Nursing degree at WCCCD.

Michigan Reconnect is the largest effort in state history to ensure that Michiganders who are 25 or older and do not have a college degree have an opportunity to earn an associate degree or skills certificate with free or deeply discounted tuition.

The Voice of Faculty Excellence

As the Vice Chancellor of the Division of Educational Affairs and my enduring commitment to the faculty and their learning environments, it is my pleasure to present to you “The Voice of Faculty Excellence.” ~ Dr. David Beaumont

Dr. Althea Brown

Dr. Althea Brown has always been inspired to teach because of her love of helping others, encouraging students to be outstanding in their endeavors and careers. Dr. Brown has been a professor at Wayne County Community College District since 2010 teaching comparative religious studies, biology, medical terminology, philosophy, anatomy and physiology, and pathophysiology.

Dr. Brown's greatest influence on her education and career are her parents, “who encouraged me to obtain the highest education I could.” Her educational background is extensive and includes earning her Doctor of Ministry from Ecumenical Theological Seminary, Master of Divinity from Turner Theological Seminary (Interdenominational Theological Center), Doctor of Chiropractic from Life University, Master of Business Administration from Central Michigan University, Bachelor of Science in Business from University of Detroit, and her Associate Degree in General Studies from Highland Park Community College. Her accomplishments include receiving the Sam Hopkins Giles Scholarship Award for highest school GPA and Turner Theological Seminary Excellent Academic Award and Dean's List, and becoming a member of the International Theta Phi Honor's Society.

Of Dr. Brown's accomplishments, her greatest is “when I go into the community and see any of my students working in their field.” She believes in treating students as professionals while they're in the classroom, allowing them to prepare for their future career paths. This parallels the quote she lives by: “People don't care how much you know, until they know how much you care.”

Outside of the classroom, Dr. Brown is a published author and has taught evangelism seminars at churches in three states. She serves as an Itinerant Elder in the African Methodist Episcopal Church where she facilitates Bible classes, performs wedding and funerals, and provides academic and personal counseling. She also enjoys playing golf, dancing, and skiing.
